

Topsmead State Forest, Litchfield, CT

Topsmead refers to the "top of the meadow". In 1927 the Buell farm was purchased, and renamed, by Edith Morton Chase, daughter of the first President of Chase Brass & Copper Co. in Waterbury. The farm produced food used on the estate and at one time they had vegetable gardens, beef cattle, poultry, sheep, pigs and draft horses.